LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, when money in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls
upon this agency for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers, caterers, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, one for ordinary notices, read of the report, etc., the Ledger will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, is a concession.

Does Not Include
notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The two for Business Leads in this Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for each subsequent insertion. A customer orders a five-line local insertion in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—24 insertions—the bill $12. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an acrimonious letter. To obviate this, and to save the advertiser a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

Large Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter,
we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE.
When man knows how to catch a ribbon, When woman learns to drive a nail, When man can thread a needle deftly, When woman gets off right from streetcars Instead of facing toward the rear, When man stops smoking bad tobacco And drinking non-smelling beer, When woman doesn't block the sidewalk With spreading skirts and puffed-out sleeves, When man stops flirting with new characters And to his lawful darling cleaves, When man can understand the baby And woman petting it takes sense, When man proposes a new bond And woman shies at the expense— Phenomena like these and others May strike surprised observers dumb But they will know by these same tokens That the millennium has come.

Mr. Tone Ross had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon. He was buggy along from below Market when an approaching train frightened his horse. The animal backed onto the trestle, and for a time there was a Chinese puzzle of horse, buggy wheels and crossties. Fortunately the engineer stopped his train within a few feet of Mr. Ross's outfit, and the horse and vehicle were gotten out without damage save a piece of broken harness.

BUCK EWING'S MISFITS.

They Want to Wipe Out "That Stain"—Mayville Done Up.

They are anxious!

And they would like to give us a fall! Yesterday Manager Watson received a letter from the Manager of the Louisville "Coloquels," who are filling an engagement at Baltimore, asking for a date with the crack Mayville team.

And yesterday afternoon he received the following telegram from Manager Bancroft of the Cincinnati "Reds," which explains itself.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 5th, 1895.
To Watson, Manager Mayville Baseball Club: If you have 19th open write me Sturtevant House. F. C. BANCROFT.

It is not known whether the Reds desire to play another game on our grounds or whether they wish to have our boys play them at League Park in Cincinnati, but it is certainly true that they are anxious to have another go with our boys.

They would rather defeat the Mayville team than any team in the National League, but it is safe to say that if they could secure a date with us there would be another bitter war go up from the faces of the Parkopolitans, because it is in the Reds' power to defeat any club that can play a little bit of ball much less the crack Mayville Club.

There will probably be some five or six games played at the East End Park before the season closes, and even if he be only an amateur club our citizen would turn out, as there hasn't been a game here for so long.

SHORT STOPS.

The Mayville players again went down in defeat yesterday at Clarksville, Tenn. "Jum" Luman's Club is wanted for a game at Flemingsburg, but "Jum" hasn't in his uniform, and we don't think he is in baseball humor.

The Vanceburg Club defeated the Manchester at the Fair at that place yesterday by a score of 11 to 3. One of our good ballplayers, Mr. Henry Wadsworth, was playing center for the Vanceburgs, and used the stick all right, knocking a three-bagger when the bases were full.
